The Newsletter of the ESMBA

Committee Profile

My name is Brandon Whittaker. I have been playing bowls for over 25 years. I have won a few county titles such as singles, triples and fours but never managed to win the pairs. I have won one national title and lost in the final twice in the fours. I have held a general committee members' role and I am now competitions secretary and have been for 2 years. I am also currently England Team manager; I have been doing this for four years and I was an assistant manager to Keith Smith for three years. I have recently been awarded life membership of the commitment to the ESMBA.

ESMBA for hardworking
